

Go2Berg Instagram competition – Terms and Conditions Headline: Win an entry to next year's race!

Every cyclist knows that preparation is a necessity. Every ride demands meticulous attention to detail, from ensuring your equipment is in peak condition to route planning and carrying essential gear. You train rigorously, knowing that being ready for anything the trail, track, or open road throws your way can make the difference between a successful ride and a potential setback.

This principle of readiness extends beyond cycling into our everyday lives. Just as you equip yourself for the ride, we take measures to counter life's often unexpected twists and turns.

Just Ask Rudi Joubert.

After losing his leg 14 years ago, Rudi knows that protecting your family from a disability or severe illness takes planning and perseverance.

This year, to help with your planning, we are giving you a chance to win a double entry into next years competition. Simply, like, follow @RudiJoubert82 with #OMGo2Berg2024 and tag the name of the person who you would ride with in 2025.
